

Hancock Woman's Club Meeting Minutes, October 10, 2018

President Joyce Perry called the meeting to order at 2:05 pm.

She welcomed everyone and announced that in the interests of time, the Secretary and Treasurer Reports will no longer be given at the meeting, but will be available in print on the table in the back. There were no reports at this meeting because the last meeting was the luncheon.

Treasurer Peg McLeod announced that she would leave copies of the financial report from the Historic Home and Garden Tour on the back table.

Yearbooks were also available at the table and Sandy Jackson was collecting dues for this year.

Doreen Ames, Co-Chair of the Social Committee with Barbara Danser, reported that the goal of the committee is to have more opportunities for more social occasions such as lunches, shopping excursions, etc. The committee will be meeting later in October and will present their ideas at the November meeting.

Doreen also announced the Paint and Wine event to be held on November 10 in the Vestry from 2 to 5pm. The cost is $25.00 for materials and appetizers. It is limited to 20 people.

Joyce introduced the Officers for this year:

Recording Secretaries: Sue Vaillancourt and Robbyn Jackson

Corresponding Secretary: Marcia Schwartz

Treasurer: Peg McLeod

Membership Committee: Sandy Jackson

Community Relations: Karen McCormack

Investment Committee Chairman: Sue Koziell

Hospitality Committee Chairman: Sonja Mucha

Programs Committee Chairman: Sue Koziell

Town Beautification Committee: Wayan Suarni and Nancy Musarra

Joyce noted that there is no candidate for Vice President and this is a problem as the Vice President moves up to the President position the following year. She told the group that this is an opportunity to share ideas and thoughts about how to move forward with that position and keep the organization going; and asked that folks get back to the Board members with their ideas.

The meeting was adjourned at about 2:20 pm and the program was announced: Avenue A and the WriteOut! Project.

Director Jaqueline Roland and Teen Center Representative Cynthia West, described the program and three teens read their own and others' poems. Regrettably, the Recording Secretary did not write down their names.

Avenue A has a web page: aveneatc.org and a Facebook page. Copies of their award winning book of poems I Need To See This On Paper, and Monadnock Region Posters were offered for sale as part of their fund raising efforts.

Following the presentation the group had tea provided by Doreen Ames, Cathleen Calmer, and Wayan Suarni.

The next meeting will be held on Wednesday, November 14 at 2 pm in the Vestry.

Respectfully submitted by,

Robbyn Jackson, Recording Secretary
